APPOMATTOX COUPLE WON $1,000 CERTIFICATE

An Appomattox County couple won a $1000 certificate during the Grand Opening of First Federal Savings and Loan on 10th and Main Streets in Lynchburg. Mr. and Mrs. James W. McFadden of Rt. 151, Appomattox County, the Grand Prize winners, had a choice of prizes; a free all-expense-paid weekend trip to Kings Dominion or a $1000 savings certificate. They chose the $1000.

The drawing for the Grand Prize on April 14 was the culmination of First Federal's week-long Grand Opening festivities. Prizes of $100 were given away every day of the Grand Opening. Winners of the daily $100 drawings were: Miss Katie Yohn, a Randolph-Macon student, Mr. Stephen Crawford of Rustburg, Mrs. Minnie C. McCraw, Mr. Edgar A. Edmundson, Mrs. Gladys Reynolds, and Mr. Robert J. Flippin, all of Lynchburg.

First Federal officially opened their new headquarters on Saturday, April 8 to an atmosphere of Kings Dominion. Yogi Bear and Scooby Doo from the gigantic amusement park near Richmond, made guest appearance along with displays from the park and a baby llama from the Lion Country Safari section Shriner clowns were also mingling through the crowds with their clown antics.

Doing the honors at the ribbon-cutting ceremony on April 8th were Mayor Joe Freeman, and First Federal neighbors John Oglesby and Robert Flippen.

The million dollar project of adding 15,000 square feet and giving facelift to the First Federal Savings and Loan main office building was completed after two years.
